MAY SHIPS RUSH TO SCOTLAND TO GIVE AID IN WORK OF RESCUE

(By Associated Press.)

QUEENSTOWN, May 7.—The Cunard line steamer Lusitania, has been torpedoed by a submarine and sunk.

The giant liner was off the Old Head of Kinsale, Ireland, when the torpedo struck her. She went down at 2:33 o'clock this afternoon, eight miles south by west from Old Head.

No definite news as to the fate of the passengers had been received by Cunard line early this afternoon.

The Cunard line announced that it would make public as fast as received all dispatches on the sinking of the Lusitania, including those relating to the fate of the passengers.

She had aboard 1,253 passengers. She sailed from New York last Saturday, May 1, and carried, in addition to her own passenger list, 163 passengers transferred to her from the Anchor liner Cameronia. In all there were 1,900 persons, including the crew, aboard.

Besides the Lusitania German submarines sunk two other British steamers of considerable size in the same vicinity. The Centurion, 639 feet long, and the Candidate, 398 feet long, were sunk yesterday in Irish waters.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, May 7.—The New York office of the Cunard line announced this afternoon that the Lusitania had been sunk.

Confirmation of the report was received in a dispatch dated Queenstown, 1:53 p. m., today and reading as follows:

"Old Head, Kinsale, about twenty boats all sorts, belonging to Lusitania, are in vicinity where sunk. About fifteen boats are making for the spot to rescue."

The Lusitania sailed last Saturday from New York and was due in Liverpool today.

A dispatch from London printed on the Dow-Jones News bureau ticker says the Lusitania has been sunk off Kinsale, Ireland.

When the Lusitania sailed she had aboard 1,900 persons. Some nervousness had been caused because of the publication of a dispatch dated Queenstown, 1:53 p. m., today and reading as follows: "Old Head, Kinsale, about twenty boats all sorts, belonging to Lusitania, are in vicinity where sunk. OTTOMAN CAPITAL REPORTED DAMAGED BY CZAR'S AIRMEN

Russian Fleet From Black Sea
Bombards Bosphorus Forts and Throws Shells Within 10 Miles of Constantinople

PARIS, May 7.—The first attack of the war on Constantinople is reported in an official dispatch from Athens. It is said three Russian aviators flew over the city, dropping several bombs which are believed to have caused extensive damage.

The message says also the Russian Black sea fleet bombarded the Turkish forts on the left bank of the Bosphorus Wednesday. Several Russian shells fell within about ten miles of Constantinople.

Unfavorable News to Allies

From Several Quarters
WASHINGTON, May 7.—Constantinople announcements officially that severe losses have been inflicted on the French and British troops landed on Gallipoli peninsula. It is said one entire battalion was annihilated.

Reports direct from the Dardanelles, while containing no new details of the fighting, say the sea bombardment and Turkish forts is proceeding successfully. Some of the forts at Chanak and Kilit Bahr and probably others on both sides of the straits up to the narrow, are said to have been silenced.

The exact status in the great battle in western Galicia remains in doubt. German and Austrian reports of a spectacular victory are increasingly optimistic. They state that the Russian resistance has been broken down steadily, and that the whole Russian Carpathian army has been placed in a precarious situation.

Retrospect advice, however, while conceding a measure of success to the Teutonic allies, say these claims are greatly exaggerated. The Russian war office announces a victory near Strv, in the Carpathians, east of the scene of the present main battle.

Maidos Set on Fire by Shells From Allies' Fleet

BARCELONNE, Thursday May 6.—(Via London, May 7).—The artillery crew of the British fleet, on the 6th, destroyed the town of Maidos, on the coast of Spain, by firing shells from the battleships of the fleet.

DROUGHT OF MONTHS BROKEN BY TERRIFIC DOWNPOUR OF RAIN

New Record Set for May With
1.77 Inches Between 7 and 8 o'clock and 2.80 Inches
by 9 o'clock Friday

One man was drowned, sewers and drains were flooded, street cars stalled and town and country utterly drenched, when Atlanta's heaviest rain since February swept down between 7 and 8 o'clock Friday morning.

At the same time, the downpour was so widespread that it means thousands and thousands of dollars saved to the farmers of the state, and with a forecast of fair for Saturday, the city faces a cleaner, fresher prospect than it has in many weeks.

At the height of the storm, about 7:45 o'clock, W. L. Trussell, of 266 Fair street, died in a broken sewer at the corner of Hill and Ormond streets. He was an old man, employed in a city construction gang that was building a new section of a sewer between two old sections.

Trussell had crowded with two other men into the new section, about ten feet below the surface of the street, to take some bolts out of the forms. His companions left the sewer when it began to rain hard, realizing their danger, for the new section, while not yet in use, was separated at either end by only a thin wall from the old sections in which the water was rapidly swelling.

Trussell, it is said, decided to remain in the dry sewer to keep out of the wet. When the old sewer at one end broke, the flood came in the breaks of the new work, crushing him down so that the water overwhelmed him. He was drowned before his comrades could aid him, and it was nearly an hour before they could recover the body.

The old sewer was twelve feet in diameter. When it burst, when it burst, water and wreckage were blown out for 150 feet, and to repair it will cost the city several thousand dollars. Another sewer near the stockade was blown out. This was a smaller one, mounting water for about 100 feet.

ATTITUDE OF JAPAN'S ALLIES TOWARD CHINA IS SOUNDED BY U. S.

Great Britain, France, and Russia Consulted as to Views on Present Status of
Two Powers' Negotiations

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, May 7.—The United States, through its ambassador, has during the last twenty-four hours, consulted Great Britain, France and Russia, as the allies of Japan, to learn their attitude toward the present status of the Japanese-Chinese negotiations.

After Secretary Bryan had been at the White House, Ambassador China called at the state department, and the two men had another conference. At its close the ambassador reiterated that he could not discuss the subject, but added that a "full statement" would be made at the embassy soon. He could not say whether it would be issued today or whether it would be a statement by the embassy or by the Japanese government.

Reports that Japan had altered some of the articles in group five of the so-called general set of demands relating to China as a whole, renewed hope that the negotiations would be concluded peacefully. It is known that the efforts of the United States as well as the other powers interested in China, have been directed toward the modification of group five, which, from the Peking viewpoint, has seemed to threaten the political and administrative independence of China.

Practically all the other Japanese demands, relating to commercial rights and special privileges in specific localities, practically have been accepted by China.

JITNEYS CUT RECEIPTS OF CAR CO. ABOUT $400 A DAY

Average Daily Receipts of Jitney Buses Are Figured
at $360

Figures contained in the April report of the Georgia Railway and Power company of the Georgia street car and trolley commission, taken into consideration with figures of other months and periods, indicates that the jitney buses are getting into the receipts of the trolley company to the extent of between $450 and $400 a day, and that they are eating about 4 per cent of the company's gross passenger business.

Average daily receipts of the jitneys, arrived at from the figures in the street car company's report covering the decrease in April under March of this year, and the decrease of April this year under those of April a year ago, only those lines with which the jitneys compete being considered, are $165. Should the jitneys make no further inroads they would, at the rate of $165 a day for the 365 days in the year, cut down the annual income of the street car company in the sum of $60,000.

While it is true that owing to the general business depression the business of the street car company was showing a considerable falling off prior to the advent of the jitneys in the latter part of March this year, it is also true that during the month of April the decrease in the street car company's receipts was considerably larger, and this decrease was in the main confined to those routes paralleled by jitneys.

Nowhere does the street car company's report refer to the jitney competition, but to ascertain that these vehicles are getting a large slice of passenger traffic one only has to compare the receipts of the lines traversed by the jitneys during April and compare them with the figures for March of this year and with April of last year.

TOTAL DECREASE
The total decrease of the company's receipts in April this year under those of April 1914, amounted to $2,125, or 11 1/2 per cent; but the total decrease for March, 1915, under March, 1914, was $2,192, or but 3 1/2 per cent. The decrease from September 1, 1914, to March 31, 1915, under the same period for the preceding year was but 7 1/2 per cent, which indicates that the increase in receipts in April over

NEWS OF TORPEDOING VESSEL STRIKES U. S. OFFICIALS LIKE BOMB

Incident Is Regarded as Most Serious Washington Has Faced Since the War Began,
It Is Said

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, May 7.—News of the torpedoing of the Lusitania struck official Washington like a bomb.

While disposed to await full details, all administration officials realized that the incident was probably the most serious Washington has faced since the war began.

President Wilson showed keen anxiety to learn whether American lives were lost. He made no comment.

Officials believed there would be no complications, unless American lives were lost.

Should any Americans lose their lives, the case would be covered, officials thought, by the warning to Germany that she would be held in that event by the United States to a strict accountability.

Embassador Page at London cabled "Lusitania torpedoed and sunk within 30 minutes. No news of passengers yet."

VIOLATION OF USURY

LAWS IS CHARGED

Three indictments charging a misdemeanor in violation of the usury laws of Georgia in charging interest over 5 per cent a month were returned Friday by the Fulton grand jury against Paul P. Jackson, a loan broker, 2 1/2 Central avenue.

The three prosecutors, each a railroad employee—W. F. Flynn, 47 Duane street; R. C. Smith, 446 Sunset avenue, and N. L. Campbell, 1308 Marietta street—charged that Jackson was charging 20 per cent a month on loans.

Deputy Sheriff Plennie Miner served Jackson with the indictments, and Jackson made bond of $200.

VISITORS THROUGH MACON FOR EDUCATIONAL MEET

Georgia Educational Association Is Having Great Annual Convention

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
MACON, Ga., May 7.—One thousand visitors, including school teachers, members of college faculties, college presidents and municipal and state school officials, are in Macon today attending the fifteenth annual convention of the Georgia Educational Association.

The program Friday morning consisted, first, of the appointment of committees, and after this a series of addresses on timely topics of interest to the convention.

Dr. A. M. Soule, president of the State College of Agriculture at Athens, spoke on the subject, "Sending College to the People," in which he gave a very interesting summary of the great educational work the state college is doing by means of farm demonstration agents, agricultural extension bureaus, farm demonstration trains, etc.

Miss Julia Lathrop, chief of the children's bureau of the United States department of labor, delivered an address on the work of the bureau.

Dr. John Lee Coulter, professor of the department of economics in Georgia Peabody College for Teachers, Nashville, Tenn., spoke on "The Church in Education."

Friday afternoon a series of departmental meetings will be held at Mercer university at 3 o'clock, while in the city auditorium, where the main convention is being held, there will be more addresses.

BRITAIN'S ADDRESS.
The principal feature of the opening session Thursday night was the address by M. L. Brittain, state superintendent of schools, giving a general survey of educational needs and conditions over Georgia.

Mr. Brittain declared one of the real dangers confronting educational work in this and other states, is the fact that the rewards of business are so much more tempting as to tempt the strongest men away from the pursuit of education. Despite this, however, there are men of the true missionary spirit, who withstand these temptations and remain true to the cause of education out of pure love of the work.

Here Mr. Brittain scored the "campaign of abuse against Georgia educators," saying:

"The stupid ignorance and almost criminal malevolence, which certain leaders have displayed recently in their efforts to destroy the influence and character of the best among our teachers, in order to secure political ends, is deadly in its influence. In other states it has been deemed a matter of pride to have a teacher competent to write a book, and Georgia has been notable in this regard; but one would think that these gentlemen are almost criminals from the campaign of abuse which has arisen among us during the past two years from certain quarters."

STATE SCHOOL BOOKS.
Referring to the proposed state publication of school books, Mr. Brittain declared the children of Georgia have little enough chance now, when only three states expending as little as Georgia, for education, without being forced to take home-made text books. "The best is none too good for our children," said Mr. Brittain.

In reference to the payment of teachers, Mr. Brittain said the educational interests of the state have suffered greatly by delay in these payments. He urged boards of education to borrow money to pay teachers, pending the disbursement of state funds, and to add on the interest charges as a necessary part of the expense of maintaining the schools.

In reference to negro schools, Mr. Brittain said the state's policy should be to bring about better relations between the races and more efficient citizenship among the colored race.

He expressed the appreciation of the state for the munificence of the general education board in defraying the expenses of a school survey.

In reference to compulsory education, Mr. Brittain strongly urged the enactment of a law putting this policy in effect. He said the arguments on the subject are so overwhelmingly in favor of compulsory education that he felt it almost an insult to the teachers to reiterate the need for a law.

Claims False Arrest
Walter Colman, a minor, suing by R. V. Colman as next friend, filed a petition in the city court Friday for $10,000 damages against Mrs. C. K. Smith, alleging she maliciously and for the purpose of extorting money from him had him arrested by a bailiff of De Kalb county on a warrant sworn out by her charging trespass. Colman stated that the warrant was dismissed April 7 when the case was heard before A. Shelverton, a justice of the peace of De Kalb county.

JITNEYS CUT DOWN CAR CO. RECEIPTS ABOUT $400 A DAY

The previous seven months was 4 per cent.

There was a total increase in receipts for April, 1915, over March, 1915, of $2,245, as compared to a total increase in April, 1914, over March, of that year, of $8,430; the loss for April this year being $4,165.

An illustration of the effect of the jitneys upon the receipts of the street car company is shown by the decrease in receipts on some of the lines with which the buses compete.

On route No. 1, known as the Marietta-Decatur street line, there was a decrease of cash fares in April, 1915, over April, 1914, of $2,353, and a decrease in April over the preceding month of March of $460, notwithstanding the fact that March has thirty-one days and April but thirty, and despite the further fact that in April, with the opening of the baseball season, the travel to the parks, and many other attractions incident to the spring, usually shows a substantial increase in receipts.

On route No. 4, known as the Inman-Park-Georgia avenue line, there was a decrease in April under April of last year of $3,059, and a decrease in April under March of $415.

ON WEST PEACHTREE.
On route No. 5, known as the South Pryor-West Peachtree street line, the decrease in April under April of last year was $1,550, and in April under March of $275.

On route No. 6, known as the Forrest avenue-Capitol avenue line, the decrease under April of last year was $1,513, and in April under March $630.

On route No. 8, known as the Marietta-East Fair street line, the decrease in April under April a year ago was $1,794, and in April under March $318.

On route No. 10, known as the Peachtree-Whitehall street line, the decrease in April under April of last year was $2,765, and in April under March $243.

On route No. 16, known as the Pine Street-Woodward avenue line, the decrease in April over April of last year was $2,584, and in April under March $284.

SAYS HE WAS DRUGGED BY MAN AND WOMAN

Luther Hazelrigs, Near Death in Hospital, Accuses Pair With Whom He Took Drink

Lying on an operating board at the Grady hospital, while intemperate ranting to save his life, Luther Hazelrigs, of East Point, a young man about 22 years old, told newspaper reporters how he was drugged by a man and a blond woman in a delicatessen shop and then taken home with him.

It is believed that he suffered from bichloride of mercury poison. As the doctors toiled over him, he groaned and twisted his body about, giving in hurried raps his story.

At noon Friday, he said, he was in a delicatessen shop on Decatur street, near Moore street, when a stranger accompanied by a well-dressed blonde, came in to have some beer with them. The man handed him a tablet, and Hazelrigs, and told him if the beer made him sick to swallow the tablet, that if it would cure him. He took a long drink and he said. When he jumped up clutching at his neck, the blonde grasped him by the coat in an effort to detain him; but he flung away out of the door and started on a dead run for the home of his mother, 266 East Fair street. He cried out as he reached the gate and fell in a faint. His mother found him and telephoned for the ambulance.

In Hazelrigs' pocket was found the "white tablet." It was bichloride of mercury, enough to have produced death. He also had a considerable sum of money on him, and it is the belief of the police, who are investigating, that it was the intention of the strange pair to drug Hazelrigs and rob him. Hazelrigs' condition is serious, but he has a fighting chance for recovery.

Within half an hour after the police were notified of Hazelrigs' experience, three arrests were made by Call Officer Maaburn. Effie Owens, seventeen years old, of the Georgia hotel; Leona Hishon, twenty-three years old, of 16 Ellis street; and E. C. Mauldin, twenty-one years old, of 258 1/2 Decatur street, were taken into custody and are held under suspicion charges. In Mauldin's pocket was found a bottle of tablets like the one Hazelrigs had.

LUSITANIA SUNK BY SUBMARINE OFF COAST OF IRELAND

Galleyshead, 425 p. m.—Several boats, apparently survivors, southeast nine miles. Green steamer proceeding to assistance.

Other dispatches from London, Liverpool and Queenstown confirmed the news. One of the messages said it was believed all the big liner's passengers had been saved.

TWO OTHERS SUNK

The British steamer Centurion was torpedoed by a German submarine off the Irish coast yesterday. Her crew were saved.

The Centurion was attacked about the same time that the British steamer Candidate, owned by the same company, was torpedoed off Waterford. The Centurion was bound for South Africa and the Candidate for Jamaica.

The Centurion was 819 feet long and her net tonnage was 3,854.

The Candidate was outward bound when she encountered the submarine 18 miles from Waterford. The crew said she was torpedoed without warning. She launched four boats. One was damaged, but the occupants were picked up. All of the crew of forty-four landed at Milfordhaven.

Board the Lost Ship
Leonidas Bitts, passenger of the Lusitania, reported to be from Atlanta, is not listed in the telephone books or directories.

John T. North, Atlanta banking agent for the Cunard line, states that his records do not show that any Atlanta Georgians or southerners were among the passengers of the big liner.

Sinking of Lusitania Caused
Big Drop in War Specialties

NEW YORK, May 7.—The stock exchange was thrown into intense excitement by the news of the sinking of the Lusitania. There was a wild rush to sell and prices fell within one hour from fifteen to thirty points in war specialties and five to ten points in the more distant issues.

News of Ship's Loss

NEW ORLEANS, May 7.—News of the sinking of the Lusitania caused great excitement in the cotton market and within an hour prices dropped 25 points.

Cunard Company Admits
Loss of Giant Vessel

LIVERPOOL, May 7.—The Evening Express was officially informed this evening by the officials of the Cunard steamship company that the Lusitania had been torpedoed and that she had sunk this afternoon.

The Life Story of Great
Liner of the Atlantic

The magnitude of the Lusitania, the most famous liner of the deep ever constructed, with the probable exception of the ill-fated Titanic, was only rivaled by her sister ship, the Mauretania.

In 1907 the gigantic transatlantic liner made her maiden trip to New York and she soon established the record for her run across the ocean, doing it practically in five days flat, quite a start for a ship of her size.

The sister ship, Mauretania, now holds the record from Queenstown to New York of 10 days, 10 hours and 41 minutes.

Like turbine engines, a daring but successful experiment of the Cunard line produced 70,000 horsepower and drove the 45,000-ton ship 25 knots, or approximately 30 statute miles, per hour.

The boat is 78 feet long, a few feet shorter than the later Mauretania, and 87 feet in beam. When carrying a full load she drew 37 1/2 feet of water. She burned 1,000 tons of coal a day.

The Lusitania was constructed at the yards of John Brown & Co., Ltd., of Glasgow, England.

On her nine decks she could carry 2,000 persons, passengers and crew, and when fully loaded was a small city in itself.

With travelers the Lusitania was packed with the most popular of the transatlantic liners, and a glance into her historic thorough explained why. No hotel, no palace surpassed this superb ocean grayhound for appointments.

The 550 first-class passengers were provided for in most sumptuous fashion; two elevators ran from deck E, on which was the main entrance, to deck A, where was the lounge, music, writing rooms, smoking room and a cafe, where one could only to the stern of the boat, which was an ideal spot in any weather.

For the more wealthy, regal suites were provided. These were practically state-apartments. They were made up of two bedrooms, dining and dressing rooms, so that perfect seclusion could be enjoyed.

The Lusitania established a new mark in stability and even when going at top speed articles in dressing tables and dining tables would not slide from their position. Sea sickness was almost impossible aboard her. This was the result of the turbine engines and the bilge pumps which drew water from either side of the ship beneath the water to steady her.

The Lusitania and Mauretania were built at the instigation of the British government, which desired a pair of royal mail and express steamers greater than anything afloat. They were built with the idea of the British admiralty and could mount, if desired, 12 six-inch guns.

"GOING, GOING, GONE!" shouted Chief Beavers, and with those words ended the "old boss" sale at police station Thursday. Several hundred dollars were recovered from the disposal of the articles sold, stolen goods which were recovered by the police and never claimed by the owners. The money will be used toward buying an automobile for the cell officers.

PAN-AMERICAN ENVOYS TO BE RAISED IN RANK

WASHINGTON, May 7.—Although the general belief here is that the visit of Dr. Lauro Muller, Brazilian minister for foreign affairs to Uruguay, Argentina and Chile is chiefly social in character, and tangible results are expected by South American diplomats here to result from it.

It is confidently believed, for example, that the proposal made in 1910 for the elevation of the legations of Argentina, Brazil and Chile at each other's capitals to embassies will be revived and probably put into effect. It is also understood that peace treaties similar to those which Secretary Bryan negotiated with practically all the countries of the world may be drafted. The principle of investigation embodied in the various Bryan peace treaties was recently proposed for the code international law being discussed by the commission of the Pan-American governing board at work on neutrality questions.

The original proposal for the elevation of the legations to embassies was made by Baron Rio Branco of Brazil five years ago, to be adopted by the United States, Mexico, Brazil, Argentina and Chile. Since then, the United States has raised the legation in Buenos Aires and San Paulo and Argentina and Chile have promoted their ministers in Washington to the rank of ambassadors. Mexico, however, has been unable to follow the outlined program, but Argentina, Brazil and Chile are now prepared, it is understood, as a tribute of respect to each other and to give higher diplomatic rank to their representatives.

COMER IS OPPOSED TO FREIGHT RATE INCREASES

MONTGOMERY, Ala., May 7.—B. B. Comer, former governor of Alabama, does not believe the state railroad commission should permit the railroads to charge an extra 10 per cent on freight shipments after June 30, the date of the expiration of an order of the former commission granting the increase. "When I was a witness before the commission yesterday, I told it that I did not believe the railroads should be permitted to add 10 per cent to their freight rates," he said. "I am in discussion of the increase in the commission granted the increase in order to relieve the railroads of a strain brought on by the war in Europe."

But he did not consider the Alabama farmers and shippers, who were badly hurt by the war as the railroads. They were the real ones to suffer, he believed the railroads should bear their part of their burden. By the order of the commission, which will expire June 30, the burden on the farmer and shipper has been increased. "The burden on the railroads has been made lighter."

speed articles in dressing tables and dining tables would not slide from their position. Sea sickness was almost impossible aboard her. This was the result of the turbine engines and the bilge pumps which drew water from either side of the ship beneath the water to steady her.

The Lusitania and Mauretania were built at the instigation of the British government, which desired a pair of royal mail and express steamers greater than anything afloat. They were built with the idea of the British admiralty and could mount, if desired, 12 six-inch guns.

JEFFRIES RECEIVES ORDINARY COMMISSION

Thomas H. Jeffries, newly-elected ordinary of Fulton county, is now Judge Jeffries in every sense of the word. His commission from Governor Slaton arrived at the courthouse Friday, and Judge Jeffries was sworn into his new office by Judge John T. Pendleton of the superior court.

Judge Jeffries was elected for the unexpired term of the late Judge John R. Wilkinson, which expires December 31, 1915.

Baby's Double Bib with Straight Edge

When announcement is received of a new arrival in the family of a friend, the first question that one asks is, "What shall I send the baby?"

This problem may be quickly solved by making one of the new bibs, which are made in a simple and worked daintily with a pattern of simple embroidery. A design that will appeal to the woman who likes to see her work develop quickly has a floral figure stamped in the center and is large enough to almost cover the upper front of the dress. A smaller bib falls over this and is slashed at the front so that the work on the foundation bib may be seen to advantage. On either side of the floral motif and at the shoulders there are the designs of tiny bowknots and the centers of the flowers are finished with buttonhole embroidery.

There is nothing more satisfactory for baby's effects than the embroidery that combines solid satin stitch and king one of the new bibs, which are made in a simple and worked daintily with a pattern of simple embroidery. A design that will appeal to the woman who likes to see her work develop quickly has a floral figure stamped in the center and is large enough to almost cover the upper front of the dress. A smaller bib falls over this and is slashed at the front so that the work on the foundation bib may be seen to advantage. On either side of the floral motif and at the shoulders there are the designs of tiny bowknots and the centers of the flowers are finished with buttonhole embroidery.

There are five bowknots on the smaller bib, two on either side and one in the center, at the base of the inverted V, which is formed by cutting out the front of the smaller bib. A single flower with short stem, and just a suggestion of a leaf appears in each corner of the front.

The experienced needleworker would not hesitate for a moment to attempt this design, because it is so simple.

The embroidery pattern illustrated and described herein, together with 400 others covering all possible uses, are included in the "Innovation Embroidery Pattern Outfit" now being presented by this newspaper, as explained elsewhere in these columns.

There is a very easy method of working leaves and petals. It is to begin at the apex, and after making a line of stitches down the center, to the right until that half is filled in, then fill in the left half, going back to the apex again to begin.

The petals of the tiny flowers are worked in solid satin stitches, but there is only a light padding, because the work is to be as light as possible when finished. The stems are outlined,

Prominent Mason of St. Louis Who Will Be Guest of Ararat Grotto

Anthony F. Ittner, prominent lawyer and Mason of St. Louis, will be in Atlanta Saturday as the guest of Ararat Grotto of this city, and at the West End Masonic temple, corner Lee and Gordon streets, will make an address Saturday night.

Mr. Ittner is deputy grand monarch of North America for the order and is active member of Alhambra Grotto of St. Louis. He was invited to come to Atlanta by Ararat Grotto to fully explain the history and work of the Masonic Order. Valedictorian of the Enchanted Realm.

His address Saturday night will be delivered in the auditorium on the second floor of the temple and is open to all Masons in the city.

ALABAMA MAY PAY CONVICTS' FAMILIES

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

MONTGOMERY, Ala., May 7.—J. W. Green, of Dallas, member of the legislature and the Merritt investigating committee, was in the state convict department yesterday gathering data which he will use in framing a bill providing for the payment of a certain percentage of the earnings of convicts to their families if they need such support. Mr. Green believes the state should make some provision for the care of needy families of convicts, and does not think several persons should be made to suffer because of one person's crime.

Another reform advocated by Mr. Green is the creation of a state prison commission and the enactment of an indeterminate sentence law. He would have the prison commission recommend paroles and pardons after personal investigations. This would relieve the secretary of state, state auditor and attorney general, who now compose the state board of pardons.

BROKEN SEWER AT HILL AND ORMOND STREETS, where W. F. Trussell was drowned Friday morning. At the extremes of the picture are shown the ends of the two old sewers, in between the new section in which Trussell was working. The end of the old sewer at the right is the one which broke, casting brick and cement on Trussell so that he could not escape when the released waters roared over him. This picture was taken soon after the accident, when the new section was filled with water. The star shows where Trussell's body was found.—Photo by Reeves.

WANTS FULL TAXATION ON BENEVOLENT ORDERS

Thomson to Insist on Regular Valuations for All Organizations

The announcement by Alderman Albert Thomson that he will call for resolution for a complete revision of the tax assessments of social and benevolent orders and organizations, featured a meeting of the aldermanic board Thursday afternoon.

Statements by Mr. Thomson and other members of the board developed the fact that practically all of the social and benevolent organizations are paying taxes on from 15 to 40 per cent of their actual holdings. Instead of 40 per cent, as is the general rule. The tax assessments against these institutions have been made nominal through a custom of many years. The assessments and consequently the tax received by the city will be practically doubled if the institutions are forced to return their property at the regular 60 per cent valuation.

The statement by Alderman Thomson followed the action of the aldermanic board in refusing to concur in a resolution adopted by council to allow the order of Red Men to pay taxes on only 15 per cent of their property. The argument was advanced that the social and benevolent organizations are assets to the city and should be encouraged by nominal assessments. Replying to this Alderman Thomson declared the city has several millionaires who are distinct assets and are valuable to the city, and that it would be just as logical to reduce their assessments. The board of aldermen Thursday afternoon concurred in a council resolution calling for a wood block pavement on Grant street. The work will be done on the assessment plan, and it is likely that before the work on the new pavement begins a resolution requesting the Georgia Railway and Power company to change their tracks to conform to the permanent pavement will be introduced in council.

WHERE SHALL COLUMBUS PUT WAR MONUMENT?

Former Mayor Wants It in Middle of Chattahoochee River

COLUMBUS, Ga., May 7.—Former Mayor L. H. Chappell, who is head of the recently organized Columbus Historical society, insists that the place for the erection of a suitable monument to mark the site of the last battle of the civil war is in the middle of the Chattahoochee river directly between Columbus and Phenix City, Ala., where a small island has been formed as the result of freshets from time to time. The former mayor issued a statement today, in which he insists that the middle of the river is the place for the monument and urges that this site be adopted. He declares the island is undoubtedly owned either by the city or the common ownership, which is true as the city, and states that the importance of clearing off and improving the place cannot be overestimated. Meanwhile there are many citizens who declare a monument on the island will be in danger of destruction by floods which at times of the year overflow the place many feet. Much interest centers in the movement and the final decision on the site will be awaited with excitement by those who are contributing to the slab.

THIS WAR ONLY FIRST OF SERIES OF MANY

Prof Ridgeway Says Racial Evolution Brought It On.
More to Come

LONDON, May 7.—Dr. William Ridgeway, professor of archaeology at Cambridge university, in an address last night before the Eugeantes society, declared the present war resulted from evolutionary racial struggles. "Hard facts seen from a scientific viewpoint," said Dr. Ridgeway, "indicate that the present war is only the first of a long series and that each new struggle will be more serious. The earth's waste places are being filled up and these wars are part of evolutionary racial struggles for existence and not the result of mere kingly ambitions."

WOMAN WANTS JOB AS A DEPUTY SHERIFF

Mrs. Nettie Yow Stands Examination for Position in Los Angeles County

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 8.—For the first time in the history of Los Angeles county a woman has taken the civil service examination for deputy sheriff. If she passes the examination, Mrs. Nettie J. Yow, a sister-in-law of Ellen Beach Yaw, famous California soloist, will be the first regular woman deputy sheriff drawing a salary.

Mrs. Yow was the first and only woman to take the examination. Four hundred and seventy-nine men took the test.

"I am firmly convinced that there is as much need for a woman deputy sheriff as there is for a woman police officer," said Mrs. Yow, "and I am confident that I will be successful."

The examination was for seven deputies to be paid a salary of $99 a month for the first six months and $100 after two years.

FRANCE TO SEIZE ALL WHEAT AND FIX PRICE

PARIS, May 6.—Announcement was made today to the budget committee of the chamber of deputies by Premier Viviani and Minister of Commerce Thomson that the government intended to regulate all existing stock of wheat, which will be resold throughout France at a fixed price.

The minister explained that the wheat supply was more than adequate to meet the requirements of the civil population but that regulation was deemed expedient to prevent speculation and the artificial inflation of bread prices. The measure proposed by the government is expected to have the effect of maintaining the existing low price and making it uniform throughout the country.

A Book That Proves the CASE CAR

1. First Price Lowest

You really owe it to yourself—as soon as you finish reading this advertisement—to ask at once for a copy of our book entitled, "From Those Who Know What You Want to Know." It tells the experiences with CASE Cars of men from every state in the Union. It is a remarkable volume of interest to motorists.

This book proves beyond dispute that the CASE Car costs less in the long run than cars priced much higher. At $1350—5 per cent discount if cash—and considering the regular equipment of an extra tire and tube on rim with tire cover, Wood wheel tire chains and 8-day clock—the CASE Car costs you far less. This is the first cost only. Then divide this price by years of service—the only fair way to judge any car—and you have a car without comparison. First cost only can never be a true standard. Time tells the CASE story.

2. Upkeep Most Economical

Naturally, a car built like the CASE, by the same standard of excellence that has distinguished CASE products for 72 years, is bound to cost less in yearly upkeep. It is least liable to visit repair shops.

Ready for the road, the CASE Car weighs 2735 lbs.—light enough to be economical in fuel, heavy enough to stand the road. What makes it economical in mechanical upkeep also makes it the same in operating charges, increasing its gasoline mileage. And as for tires, CASE owners silence all others when conversation turns that way.

So in first cost, mechanical upkeep and operating expenses we have real records to show you—proof you can't afford to miss. Why not come in today? Or at least write for the book? (30)

ORDINANCE ON TEACHERS' CREDITS UP TO MAYOR

Alderman Armistead's Measure Is Concurred in by Aldermanic Board

The ordinance by Alderman Jesse W. Armistead to authorize the board of education to give credits to teachers in the public school system for work done in other cities was concurred in by the aldermanic board Thursday, following its adoption by council last Monday. It now needs only the signature of the mayor to become a law.

Assistant City Attorney W. D. Ellis was present at the meeting and expressed the opinion that the ordinance is perfectly legal, but that it does not carry the right for the board to pay back money doctored from the pay of some teachers under the ruling that the board had been allowing the credits without proper authority.

Neither does the ordinance carry a provision as to when the credit system shall become effective, which will probably be at the next school term instead of next month, as was expected.

Only one member of the board, Alderman E. N. Ragdale, objected to the passage of the measure. He asked how the board determined what teachers should have credits. Alderman Armistead said the board generally fixed the credits on recommendation of the superintendent of schools.

Then Mr. Ragdale declared he would have to oppose the measure because, in his opinion, it might mean politics would be injected into the school system, and some teachers receive credits which were not deserved, and other teachers, who really deserved them, but had no political influence, might fail to get credits.

SPECIAL RATES MADE TO QUITMAN'S SHOW

Hereford Cattle Show and Street Pageant to Be Held May 26

The railroads in a radius of about 500 miles have agreed to put on a special rate of one fare for the round trip to Quitman and the animal industry convention, which will be held there on May 26.

The parade and pageant, the Hereford cattle show, and "seeing Georgia" automobile tours will be among the principal features of the convention. There will be floats from the merchants of Quitman, farm floats and a fine exhibit of south Georgia cattle.

LAWYERS ADDRESS SUFFRAGE SCHOOL

With a delegation of suffragists from Rome, Ga., headed by Mrs. Janette de Jarnette, present the suffrage school of the Atlanta Equal Suffrage association, presided over by Mrs. Annella W. Woodall, met Thursday evening at the Ansley hotel. Mrs. Mary L. McLendon, president of the Georgia Equal Suffrage association, conducted the question box. Blair Foster and L. J. Grossman, lawyers, addressed the meeting. Mr. Foster spoke on contracts from a neutral angle; Mr. Grossman spoke on suffrage as a southern institution, started in this country by Confederate settlers of Wyoming after the war, who gave the vote to women 44 years ago.

PEACOCK IS ELECTED TO COUNCIL PLACE

Augustus T. Peacock, a member of the faculty of the Georgia School of Technology, was elected a member of council from the Tenth ward Thursday to succeed Claude C. Mason, resigned.

As exclusively predicted in The Journal of Wednesday, the name of George P. Dickson, whose name was in the campaign in his interest, was not presented to council, and Mr. Peacock was elected without opposition.

Following his election Mr. Peacock took the oath of office and was given his seat in council. He had a chance to vote on one measure at the session which elected him.

J. C. LOGAN TO ATTEND CHARITIES CONFERENCE

To attend the National Conference of Charities and Corrections, which meets in Baltimore May 12 to 26, Joseph C. Logan, secretary of the Associated Charities of Atlanta, left Thursday evening. He is scheduled to address the convention on the subject of domestic troubles dealt with by the charities.

Mr. Logan will be in town a few days in Virginia to visit relatives before proceeding to Baltimore. During his absence Miss Lettie Bamspeck will be in charge of the local charities.

R. H. PRESLEY RACE FOR FIRE CHIEF

R. H. Presley, for five years an assistant chief of the city fire department, has announced he will be a candidate against Chief W. B. Cummings at the July election by council.

Captain W. P. Cody has been an active candidate for some months for the position of chief, so the announcement of Presley means a three-cornered fight for the place, as Chief Cummings is in the race and says he is confident of reelection.

AD MEN OF THE WORLD TO HEAR BISHOP CANDLER

"Master Theologian" Invited to Discuss "Christianity and Commerce"

As "the master theologian of America," Bishop Warren A. Candler, of Atlanta, has been selected to deliver an address on "Christianity and Commerce" before the annual convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World at Chicago in June.

One of the features of the convention representing the three great departments of life which bear on advertising, to-wit: Law, religion and finance.

It was the idea of the program committee to secure addresses by the leaders of these subjects in America.

For the address on law they selected Fifth Street, United States senator from New York. For the address on religion they selected Bishop Candler. The speaker on finance has not yet been selected.

These and other interesting facts concerning the program of the convention were told to the members of the Atlanta Ad Men's club Thursday by S. C. Hobbs, of this city, himself a former president of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World and advertising manager of the Coca-Cola company.

The Atlanta club is planning to send a strong delegation to Chicago and will invite the associated clubs to hold their annual convention here in 1916.

In the course of the meeting Mayor Woodward took his usual rap at the city council, declaring the time has come for the people to take charge of their city government and have a general house-cleaning.

The mayor's sentiments as to a change in municipal government were echoed by Julian Bonham, and Willie West when they rose to report on the work of their committees.

Mr. West's remarks were in his characteristic witty style.

On traveling from the south to boost Atlanta, like all of us Atlanta fellows do," said he, "I get away with me on the shape until they upbraid me on our city government. Then I take the count. I tell you, gentlemen, the impression is settling abroad in Dixie that Atlanta is not capable of self-government, municipally speaking. We keep our lawns green, and trimmed, our houses painted (on the front at least) and our front porches clean and cool and inviting. But that everlasting political cat and dog fight is going on in the back yard all the time. It is time, gentlemen, for us to act."

SUIT IS FILED AGAINST JITNEY BUS FOR DAMAGES

John H. Smith, Insurance Man,
Asks $5,000 for Alleged Injuries

The first Fulton county damage suit against a jitney bus was filed late Thursday afternoon in the city court by John H. Smith, 37 years old, an insurance man, 174 Central avenue, against M. J. Smith, J. A. Warburton and G. W. Morris for $5,000.

Smith alleges his suit that he was about to cross Marietta street, between Forsyth and Fairlie streets, when a jitney bus, driven by G. W. Morris, and which South and Warburton were the operators and proprietors, came speeding between 30 and 35 miles an hour, loaded with 7 or 8 passengers.

On the front of the bus was a sign "From Five Points to the Stock Yards." Smith, who calls the jitney a "common carrier" in his suit, alleges that he hesitated to cross the street, realizing an attempt to do so would be dangerous in front of the speeding jitney.

He states he waited within a few feet of the curb when the jitney swerved to the right, and, despite a backward leap on his part, hit his left leg, hurled him unceremoniously upon the pavement.

Smith states in his suit that John M. Gann, a bystander, took the number of the car—Ga. 5239—and that Morris, the driver, remarked it was too late to use the number as they were not under way.

Smith alleges he later went to the South, one of the defendants, and asked for payment for his injuries, and that South told him he had no money on the car, and if he sued he'd get nothing out of them.

Smith states he is an insurance man and was earning $12 a week; that his earnings capacity was cut in half by the injuries received.

Attorney Howell C. Erwin represents Smith.

SUES FOR GWINNETT FROM EVINETT FARM

C. O. Shafer Takes Loss of Turnip Patch and Other
Troubles to Court

For alleged unjust eviction from a Gwinnett county farm, putting the plaintiff to the "great expense" of $10 and causing the loss of a patch of turnips worth $100, C. O. Shafer, of Atlanta, brought suit on the 5th of May for $1,000 damages against T. C. Conway, of Fulton county, and John Hamilton, of Gwinnett county.

Shafer, who asks punitive and vindictive damages, in addition to the actual loss sustained, said he moved out from Atlanta at a cost of $14 to Conway's farm, of which Hamilton was overseer, where he was to get the land, a garden and a house to live in and share the crops with Conway.

The plaintiff immediately sowed a turnip patch, and started a vegetable garden, the suit states; he also began preparing 40 acres for cultivation, when Hamilton, the suit alleges, told him to plant eight extra acres in corn. This was too much for Shafer, the suit alleges, and he refused only to be evicted by a dispossessionary warrant, filing his turnips. W. A. Sims, attorney, files the suit.

GOVERNOR OF ALABAMA MAY VETO ANTI-TIPPING

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

MONTGOMERY, Ala., May 7.—Governor Henderson has not determined what he will do with the Griffin anti-tipping bill, passed by the legislature in February and still unsigned upon his desk.

The bill provides punishment for persons who give tips and for persons who receive them and also companies and corporations who permit their employees to receive tips.

Governor Thomas C. Rye, of Tennessee, vetoed a similar bill last week and this fact has brought renewed interest in Governor Henderson's probable action.

It would be no surprise if the governor should veto the Griffin bill. Henderson said he had not read it and had not made up his mind. However, he expressed views on anti-tipping measures which are at a variance with the plan of the author of the bill which was passed.

GET YOUR HAND READY, MR. OLD-TIMER

OLD-TIMERS WILL WELCOME ALL NEWCOMERS TO ATLANTA TUESDAY

You Are Either One or the Other, and Are Commanded to Be at Auditorium On Time

Are you a Newcomer or an Oldtimer? You must be one of the two if you live in Atlanta and breathe our air. All the folks are invited, agreed, even commanded, to appear at the auditorium next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock for the maddest, merriest, most mirthful occasion of them all.

It's Newcomers' Night, inspired by the spirit of fellowship which is Atlanta's finest own, planned by the Rotary club, backed by all other organizations in town, a night for everybody from grandfathers to the baby, with each Atlantian that is an oldtimer as host, every Atlantian that has come here since January 1, 1914, the newcomer guest.

There is no prodigious sum stuff. It's exactly the reverse. Instead of killing the fatted calf and declaring an "old-home week," the Rotarians determined to turn the tables and have everybody get acquainted with his own neighbor.

It will be "We're glad you're here to stay, Bill," not "Happy to have you back," and instead of "I've had a wondrous time since I left the old town," you will hear, "This is some place, I glad I came here to live!"

There will be stunts—stunning stunts. Six hundred balloons will be cut loose. They are worth anywhere from two bits to fifteen bucks a piece. They are for the newcomers and they may be redeemed for the peculiar treasure of kings.

SHORT ADDRESSES.—And there will be speeches—please don't jump—short speeches. Governor Sloan, Governor Elect Harris, Mr. R. Wilkinson, Mayor Woodward, Congressman Howard and one or two others will talk by way of welcome.

Each newcomer will get up and tell why he came to Atlanta. But they will be limited to two minutes. The Rotarians guarantee this, and just so there won't be any mistake, they will allow twice in that two minutes, it will be his only chance.

The Tech Glee club is going to be there, too. There will be a nineteen-piece brass band, not an orchestra, but a regular, home-folks brass band that plays "Turkey in the Straw," never heard of Monks and thinks Verdi is a kind of pickle. Also, refreshments. Another thing, three oil paintings, 10x50 feet, showing Atlanta fifty years ago, to day and fifty years hence. These paintings are going to Fresno pretty soon to advertise the city, so you'd better get a long look now.

FOR EVERYBODY.—The great thing about this newcomers' night is that it's of everybody, for everybody and by everybody. The Atlanta Rotary club, the churches, named this Sunday Newcomers' Sunday. All the newcomers in the city are especially invited to church that morning, and the minister will talk about Newcomers' night and its big significance.

It will also be Dean John R. Atkinson's subject at the Forsyth Sunday school. The chamber of commerce is sending out letters to its members telling us "em about the night, the Atlanta Rotary club, the churches, named this Sunday Newcomers' Sunday. All the newcomers in the city are especially invited to church that morning, and the minister will talk about Newcomers' night and its big significance.

It's time somebody thought of Newcomers' night, because there are just slaves of the n. c. s. in Atlanta. Bert Adams got 999 letters in one day telling how glad folks that have recently moved here, and there are thousands more.

If you know of any yourself, drop a line to the Rotary secretary, 310 Third National building. He'll see that the newcomer gets there. But whether you drop a line or get a line, whether old or new, be sure and drop yourself in that big building at the corner of Gilmer and Courtland streets at 8 o'clock Tuesday night.

OPIMUM DEN IS RAIDED BY FEDERAL OFFICERS

United States Revenue officers' Case and Perkins on Thursday raided an opium den at Augusta, said to have been run by Loo Hing Lung and three other Chinamen, all of whom were arrested.

The raid is part of the government crusade against violators of the federal anti-narcotic law, and in the Augusta case the government is trying to find who supplied the Chinamen with drugs.

NASH AND BRUNSON ARE GUARDED BY POLICEMAN

A policeman is on duty every day at the Grady hospital now, guarding J. J. Nash and J. D. Brunson until they are sufficiently recovered to be given hearings in charges of disorderly conduct. The two men engaged in a pistol duel on Gilmer street Wednesday night because, it is said, Mrs. Nash insisted on meeting Brunson after her husband had warned her not to.

TUBERCULAR HOSPITAL PLANNED BY COLUMBUS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) COLUMBUS, Ga., May 7.—The City of Columbus and the county of Muscogee will jointly establish a sanitarium on a three-acre farm out of the city limits for the special care and treatment of all tubercular patients of the community. If plans now under way materialize, the county commissioners have already purchased the farm and the plan is for the city to build the hospital and aid, in equipping it. Such patients are not admitted to the city hospital, and the regular post house is not suited for the proper care of these people, several of whom it is assumed are already cases on the authorities, and it is planned to have no time in providing the proposed ward.

JEFFERSON COUNTY BANK HAS ANNUAL MEETING

WADLEY, Ga., May 7.—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Jefferson County bank of this city was held at the office of the bank May 4. The bank's report showed it in a fair state of splendid condition. An 8 per cent dividend was declared, and the undivided profit account was materially increased. The following officers were re-elected:

G. H. Williams, president; J. N. Robertson and R. B. Porter, vice presidents; John D. Wapner, financial agent; W. C. Marion, cashier; J. A. Matthews, assistant cashier.

PUBLIC SALE OF LOTS IN PEACHTREE HEIGHTS

Sale in Attractive Home Section Will Begin at 3 o'clock Saturday

Tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock there will be a public sale of the home building lots in the Peachtree Heights subdivision on Peachtree road, in a section where many attractive homes have already been built and others are projected.

Many of the lots in this section have already been sold. Some of the purchasers have built permanent homes on them and others are planning to do so. This entire section has all the essential city conveniences, including city water, sewers, electricity, telephones, street car lights, city delivery service, police protection and rapid transit cars running ten minutes apart on the Buckhead line, reaching the city within twenty-four minutes.

President E. Rivers, of the E. Rivers Realty company, who announces this sale, gives assurance that it will be a genuine opportunity for those who desire either high-class building lots for homes, or who wish to make an investment.

"This will be an opportunity for those who attend this sale to get this splendid home property at their own prices," Mr. Rivers said. "We realize that this is not the time to put home property of this high class on the market at public sale, and there is just one reason why we are doing it. There are some obligations which we are called upon to meet, and we prefer to meet them rather than ask for extensions."

"It is for that reason we are offering the people of Atlanta this opportunity to buy what we consider the best home property the city offers, at their own price. We don't propose to sell all of it, but enough to meet our requirements, and there we will stop."

"As everyone knows, business and financial conditions are rapidly improving and we are on the threshold of the biggest era of prosperity the south has ever known. This is going to mean good profit for the purchasers in every foot of this property which we sell tomorrow."

Those desiring to attend the sale in Peachtree Heights, should take the Buckhead cars tomorrow and get off at Peachtree way.

YOUNG LAWYERS WILL DISCUSS 'VICE BULLETINS'

Whether publication of the bulletins of the Men and Religion Forward Movement is desirable will be the subject of a debate by young Atlanta lawyers Saturday night at the meeting of the Civic Forum in the chamber of commerce assembly room.

SCHOOL FESTIVAL AT AUDITORIUM TONIGHT

Children of Grammar Schools to Take Part in Spring Program

At the auditorium Friday night, at 7:30 o'clock, the spring festival of the grammar schools of Atlanta will be held.

Dr. Theo. Toepel, physical director of the schools, is in charge of the program, and the tickets, which are on sale at Daniel Brothers, have had a splendid demand. Games have been arranged for the special entertainment of the children.

The prizes which were won at the field day exercises will be distributed Friday night by James L. Key, a member of the school board. The program is as follows:

1. (a) Folk dance, "Carroll"—First grade; (b) game, pass bean bags, East Atlanta, Fair street, Lee street and Williams street schools.

2. (a) Folk dances, "First of May"—Second grade; (b) game, pass bean bags, Calhoun, Highland, Ira street, Moreland avenue, Peoples street and Walker street schools.

3. (a) Folk dances, "I See You"—Third grade; (b) game, pass bean bags, Edgewood, English avenue, Forrest avenue, Peoples street, W. P. Ralston, Stewart avenue schools.

4. Awarding of prizes by James L. Key to winners of field day contests, a number of board of education class athletes.

5. (a) Folk dances, "The Girl of the Year"—Fourth grade; (b) game, shuttle relay, Crew street, Georgia avenue, Hill street, Locke street and North avenue schools. Crew street, Davis street, East Atlanta, Edgewood, Moreland street, Forrest avenue, Georgia avenue, Hill street, Ira street, Lee street, Locke street, North avenue, Oakhurst and State street schools.

(c) Folk dances, Highland Schottische—Fifth grade; (d) game, pass bean bags, Calhoun, Edgewood, Lee street, Locke street and Peoples street schools.

"AS YOU LIKE IT" AT DECATUR HIGH SCHOOL

Shakespeare's fanciful comedy, "As You Like It" will be presented by the graduating class of the Decatur High school on the campus of the Greenwood school Saturday evening at 8 o'clock.

Members of the class will take all the parts. Rehearsals are being held daily.

They Are 70 Years Old.

"For some time past my wife and myself were troubled with kidney trouble," writes T. B. Carpenter, Harrisburg, Pa. "We suffered rheumatic pains all through the body. The first few doses of Foley Kidney Pills relieved us. After taking five bottles between us we are entirely cured. Although we are both in the seventies we are as vigorous as we were thirty years ago." Foley Kidney Pills stop sleep disturbing bladder weakness, backache, rheumatism, dizziness, swollen joints and sore muscles. Sold everywhere.—(Adv.)

Tomorrow---Atlanta's Finest Home Building Lots at YOUR OWN PRICE

SALE SATURDAY, MAY 8 3 O'CLOCK P. M.

Finest Home Lots
Away From City
Smoke and Dust in

Peachtree Heights

Why? Because we must have the money to meet maturing obligations, and we are going to sell enough of them to do it. Read what leading Atlantians say of the high-class and the advantages of this property: :: ::

Atlanta, April 15, 1915

E. Rivers Realty Co.,

Atlanta, Ga.

Gentlemen:

I think the Peachtree Heights section is unsurpassed for home building purposes. The approach is through one of the most attractive portions of Atlanta. The street car facilities are excellent and the privileges from the use of water works and electric lights are unlimited. In addition, the neighborhood is composed of the best people.

Very truly,

John H. Shattuck

Business Is Better

"I have no hesitation in saying there has been a great improvement, and this improvement is still going on and will become more and more noticeable."

JOHN K. OTTLEY,
Vice-Pres. Fourth National Bank.

Business Is Better

"The depression of the past few months is giving way to buoyancy and optimism. Thoughtful and far-sighted business men see the coming of prosperity and are preparing for it."

HUGH M. WILLET,
Life Insurance Manager.

Business Is Better

"With the coming of spring, with a better feeling in the real estate field, with good planting weather and with the reasonably good collections we have had, I do not see any reason why we are not entering upon an era of prosperity."

C. E. CURRIER,
Pres. Atlanta National Bank.

Atlanta, Ga., April 26th, 1915

Mr. E. Rivers,

Atlanta, Ga.

Dear Sir:

We regard the Peachtree Heights Park section as one of the finest residence sections in or around Atlanta. It is well located, within easy access of the city, has the advantage of city conveniences and is very attractive residence property.

We expect to see this section where many handsome homes have already been built, develop rapidly, and have no question that it will soon be built up in beautiful homes. We do not think any man who wants a well located and comfortable home with pleasant surroundings, can make any mistake in building here.

Very truly yours,

John H. Shattuck & J. H. Ewing

Business Is Better

"Business is here—lots of it. And it will get better and better as the effort is made, and the fall's business will undoubtedly be one of the best we have ever known."

J. E. C. FIDDER,
General Agent, Bradstreet's.

These letters tell the story---show you what leading business men think of this section. We have many others. Here is what a few of them say:

"I have for a long time believed that the future permanent residence section of Atlanta will be on Peachtree Road and its vicinity."

JAMES R. GRAY.

"We regard Peachtree Heights Park section as one of the finest residence sections in and around Atlanta."

J. R. SMITH & J. H. EWING

"It is the property that appeals to me most for residential purposes."

GEORGE W. FORRESTER

"Atlanta is growing more rapidly northward than in any other direction, and this property lies in the immediate line of development."

EDWIN P. ANSLEY

But we don't want you to take anybody's word for it. We prefer that you go and see for yourself.

We are going to give you an opportunity, in the very teeth of the greatest prosperity the south has ever known, to buy these lots AT YOUR OWN PRICE---and it's the last one you will have.

As you know, it has all the city conveniences, is rapidly building in fine homes, and ---but go and see it; that's the best way.

Go and look at it before the sale. Look everywhere else. Make any comparison you wish. You can't find any more like it, because there is no more.

Take the Buckhead car, or drive out Saturday. You'll regret it if you are not there.

Routing Your Telephone Call

THIS picture shows how the traffic engineers of the Bell system have mapped out the route for long distance telephone calls between New York and Kansas City.

There may be forty different routes by which a telephone call could be routed; the Bell engineers pick out the one which will give the best service to the public. Constant study is necessary to meet changing conditions due to plant extensions and improved equipment.

There are 12,000,000 long distant routes in the Bell system, which must be prepared and kept up to date and in addition a great number of toll lines of the Associated Companies, which are determined and maintained with similar care.

When you use the Long Distance telephone, your call is routed in such a way that you will get the best possible transmission. It is supervised by operators all along the line who take a personal pride in rendering perfect service.

Mrs. Griffin and Mrs. McMichael to Entertain
Mrs. Griffin and Mrs. McMichael who have recently returned from a cruise around South America, the West Indies and the Panama canal zone, May 12 at 3:30 in the parlors of the Winslow. They will exhibit interesting views collected on the trip.

To Mrs. Amadeus Grabau
During her lecture engagement in Atlanta, Mrs. Amadeus Grabau, was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Victor Kriegerhaber. She was honor guest at a dinner party given Thursday evening, by Dr. and Mrs. Kriegerhaber, the other guests including Mr. and Mrs. Albert Grossman and Dr. and Mrs. Somerville.

Garden Party
A beautiful event of Thursday afternoon, May 13, will be the garden party at which Mr. and Mrs. George M. Brown will entertain at the Capitol City Country club, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Brown, Jr., whose wedding was a recent interesting event. The party will include a slight number of the young married set.

To Mrs. Flindrau
The dinner dance at which Mr. and Mrs. Morris Brandon entertained Thursday evening at their home on the Paces Ferry road, was a pretty compliment to Mrs. Blair Flindrau, of Mexico City, who has received charming attention as the guest of Mrs. Don A. Pardee. An effective color scheme in rainbow was carried out in the central decoration of the large round table at which the guests were seated. A flurry of tulle in pink, blue, lavender and orange faintly concealed a basket filled with pink roses and peonies, which rested in the center and the candlesticks flanked tapered in pastel shades. After dinner dancing was enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Victor Lamar Smith will entertain informally at dinner this evening in honor of Mrs. Flindrau, and Saturday afternoon, Mrs. Dan B. Harris will give a party in her honor at the Druid Hills club tea dance.

For Belgian Sufferers
Much interest centers in the moving picture to be shown at the Lyric theater tonight at 7:30 o'clock and continuing through Saturday night for the relief of the Belgian sufferers. The secretary interesting spots around Atlanta, and Dr. F. E. May, executive secretary of the central committee of the Belgian relief fund, appears in the leading role.

Afternoon Tea and Musicals
A delightful event of Friday afternoon, May 7, at 4 o'clock tea and musicals will be given by Mrs. and Mrs. Hugh Richardson entertained at their home on West Peachtree street in compliment to Mrs. Elmer Castle, of New Jersey, the guest of Mrs. Adrienne Battey.

Mrs. Castle possesses a soprano voice of marked sweetness and purity of tones and will be shown in the Lyric theater, which came over from Athens for the occasion, gave a musical program which proved an artistic treat to the audience. The pianoforte solos rendered by Mr. Hodgson showed the sympathetic interpretation and masterly technique with which the young artist is fast becoming known. American Beauty roses, handsome garden grown peonies and a wealth of wild pansies made the rooms attractive and assisting Mr. and Mrs. Richardson in entertaining were Miss Louise Drake, of Chattanooga, and Miss Sara Bell.

Children's Party
A children's party will be given in Taff Hall Monday afternoon under the management of Miss Nell Gattin and Miss Henriette Masseling. There will be many amusements for the tiny tots, and dancing and all kinds of games for the older girls and boys. A fee of ten cents will be charged which includes admission and refreshments. All are cordially invited to attend.

Receiving Party
Mrs. Francis Wortham Helms, Mrs. Francis Knap and Mrs. D. O. Dougherty will give an afternoon reception Friday, May 21, at the home of Mrs. Dougherty on the Prado in Ansel Park in compliment to Miss Alice Bacon Cox and Miss Annie Lou Pargett, two brides.

Mrs. M. B. Cox will assist in receiving and those assisting in entertaining will be the attendants of the two brides, including Miss Mary Blacklock, Miss Mary Lucy Turner, Miss Katherine Kamper, Miss Carol Dean, of Gainesville; Miss Kay Belle Hickson, of Americus; Miss Elizabeth Silvey, Mrs. John Russell, Mrs. Christopher Irby, Mrs. Russell Bridges, Mrs. J. R. Pargett, Mrs. B. Dougherty, Mrs. James Dougherty, Mrs. Charles Kamper, Mrs. Frances Knap and Mrs. Caroline Crenshaw, Miss Elva Crenshaw, Miss Magie Solomon and Miss Janet Hatcher will serve punch.

Piano Recital
A piano recital will be given by pupils of Miss Marguerite Bartholomew at the Washington seminary, Saturday evening, May 8 at 8:15 o'clock. A varied program of solos and ensemble numbers has been prepared and the public is cordially invited to attend. Those taking part are Misses Helen Hines, Miss Gene Dossie, Miss Helen Galt, Miss Elizabeth Tillman, Miss Mary Cohen, Miss Virginia Fann, Miss Margaret Dorier, Miss Helen Gable, Miss Esther Silverman, Miss Sarah McWilliams, Miss Martha Bartholomew and Messrs. AMERICAN FASHIONS

BY ELLIAN E. TOWNS

One line of a well-known nursery jingle might be thus revised to apply to a phase of the fashion situation—"she shall have ruffles wherever she sews." The reason is obvious, for seldom has such an abundance of ruffle trimmings made an appearance on frocks for all seasons. They are narrow and wide, corded, hemmed, scalloped, and frayed-in, in fact, every known variation in the way of finishing and applying is resorted to with most interesting results.

Particular attention is accorded the ruffles of skirts and tunics, and these invariably show little duff ruffles as a finish. The frock here shown depicts a pretty disposition of narrow ruffles on a long tunic skirt. First there is a knee-length drop, to which a gathered duff is added, and this is edged with a narrow ruffle. The knee-length drop is trimmed with festooned ruffles applied at the hip line and a few inches above the edge. The entire tunic is of white net, worn over an undershirt of the same, whose lower edge hangs two or three inches below.

There is a long-sleeved guimpe of white net, trimmed with rows of cut satin buttons and finished at the wrists with self ruffles. A very quaint, odd cut bolero of straw-colored tulle is worn over the guimpe. The sketch will show how the duff is edged beneath the arm-eye, with a broad girle of the same tulle run through slashes in the back of the bolero, which is lighter than the fronts. The square embroidered medallions are worked in emerald green.

Kipling Reading at Terrace
Rev. W. W. Memminger will give a Kipling reading Wednesday afternoon, May 13, at 4 o'clock at the Georgian Terrace under the auspices of the Young Ladies' Auxiliary of All Saints church. A feature of interest will be the Kipling poem recently offered by the chapter of Mr. Harcourt. The musical accompaniment will be played by Miss M. Kipling. All interested are most cordially invited to attend.

D. A. R. Garden Party
A feature of interest at the garden party given by Mrs. W. L. Peel Thursday afternoon at Woodlawn, in honor of the members of the Joseph Haberman chapter of the D. A. R., was the presentation of the paper on the judges of the supreme court, which was the prize recently offered by the chapter. Speeches were also made and many interesting reports were given. Prizes were served on the lawn by a group of the younger members. The decorations in the evening a group of peonies were sent to Mary Antin with appropriate inscription from the chapter. A goodly sum was realized from the entertainment.

To Visitor
A pleasant occasion of Wednesday evening was the informal dance at which Mrs. Will Sander was hostess in honor of Miss Roddy Booth, of Athens, the guest of Miss Ruth Buchanan. Quantities of wood fern and dorewood were used in decoration. Those invited were Miss Booth, Miss Buchanan, Miss Myrtle Hodges, Miss Mabel Harwood, Miss Elvira Neal, Miss Frances Alexander, Miss Agnes Amus, Miss Joffie Vaughn, Miss Thelma Ehrig, Miss Ola Steer, Mr. Alexander, Mr. Faust, Mr. Connolly, Mr. Thrasher, Mr. McDowell, Mr. Buchanan, Mr. Wade, Mr. McCarty, Mr. Beach, Mr. Holton Taylor and Mr. McDonald.

Do You Know The Real Food Value of Spaghetti?
When you talk about buying ten cents or one dollar's worth of any foodstuff, what do you mean by worth? The only measure of genuine worth in the purchase of staples must be nutrition. But do you keep nutrition in mind when you buy the family provisions? Let us see.

Most is probably your biggest item. Yet no one has authority that Dr. Hitchcock, the dietitian, says that meat is a dear food. Why? Because we pay for too much of the amount of nutrition that we secure. Meat contains 100 per cent water—half of that when it is cooked up at 35c a lb.—three-quarters water at 85c.

Now, take Fast Spaghetti, made from Durum wheat, a rich, glutinous cereal. Of spaghetti and its allied products, the same authority says that they contain only 10 per cent water, and these foods are absorbed almost in their entirety to make blood, muscle and bone. Fast Spaghetti costs 10c a large package—entirely all worth.

Only good wheat can produce good flour. Only the finest wheat can make the finest flour—Valier's Dainty Flour is made from the very best variety of soft winter wheat that is grown.

It is milled slowly to retain full baking quality of the flour and sifted through silk to get fineness. Sometimes it costs a trifle more by the sack, but always it costs less in use, because it makes more baking.

Valier's So-Easy Flour is Valier's Dainty Flour with self-rising ingredients mixed in accurate proportions. Requires no salt or baking powder.

A Very Important Sale of Girls' Hats $8 and $10 Hats at $5.00

Most girls are feeling the need of another hat right now—or will pretty soon, for the going-away trip. This will be a good time to buy—Saturday—when our regular $8 and $10 kinds are priced at $5.

A Most Remarkable Sale of Girls' Summer Dresses

$3.98 the Price for Dresses up to $12.50

They are made of fine, beautiful materials, and are hand embroidered or trimmed with Irish crochet lace or medallions, or other effective touches—all dainty, lovely dresses of a very high order.

They are soiled—the reason for such extreme reduction in price. But one trip to the laundry or the dry cleaner's will offset that, and this price warrants the small extra expense.

They are chiefly in white—a few delicate pink or light blue. The materials are voiles, batiste, and some of allover embroidery.

So desirable at this very low price—they will be eagerly chosen Saturday. Dresses up to $12.50—at $3.98.

SAVANNAH COLLECTING STATE AUTO LICENSES

Chatham County Failing to Act, City Government Gets Busy

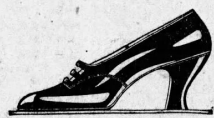

SAVANNAH, Ga., May 7.—The city of Savannah is still after the man who has not paid his 1915 automobile tax. The recorder had some more offenders before him this morning and dismissed them provided they would get the badges for their cars.

The state has to thank the city of Savannah for much of the money it gets from here. The city uses the state badges for the purpose of identifying car owners. The city ordinances require that there shall be a registration of all badge numbers by car owners at the city hall. To get these numbers the city decided to docket every car owner, who didn't have a 1915 badge. The result has been a great haul for the state. The county commissioners, who were delegated to collect the tax, declined to do so.

Between the jitney buses and the private cars the recorder has had a busy time this week. There are as many jitney buses running as ever. All the owners who were recently fined, have given bond, appealed their cases and gone to running their cars again as merrily as ever.

RED CROSS HEAD SAYS GARMAN SEIZED FUNDS

Gen. Von Bissing Charged With Dispossessing Relief Society in Belgium

LONDON, May 7.—A dispatch from Havre to the Daily Telegraph says that Prince de Ligne, president of the Belgian Red Cross, reports that General Von Bissing, the German governor of Belgium, has dispossessed the Red Cross from its powers and seized funds amounting to 200,000 francs ($40,000).

The dispatch states that Prince de Ligne has filed protests with Brand Whitlock, United States minister to Belgium, and the international headquarters of the Red Cross at Geneva.

SUPERIOR TURKISH FORCE IS ROUTED BY RUSSIANS

Ottoman Army at Dilman Numbered 18,000, It Is Officially Announced

(By Associated Press.)

TIFLIS, May 7.—(Via Petrograd and London, May 7.)—It has been officially established that the Turkish force who, under Thali Bey, recently occupied Dilman, numbered 18,000 men. This shows that their numerical strength was greater than that of the Russians who eventually drove them back. The trophies taken by the Russians were a complete hospital outfit and enormous quantities of stores. It is not known how many prisoners were taken. The Turkish commander and his staff narrowly escaped capture.

Reports received by Armenians here tell of the murder of a member of the Turkish parliament from Van, an Armenian named Wraman. A celebrated Van political worker named Ishkan, and four companions also lost their lives with Wraman. The six men were killed while on their way to Shattuk to lead in the defense of that place against the Kurds.

Shattuk was bombarded by 900 Turkish regular troops. Armenians numbering 800 assembled at Saragunte to oppose the murderous bands of Kurds threatening that place, but the Kurds were aided by Turkish regulars, and after a long struggle the Armenians, all were wiped out except eight men, who ultimately found shelter in the monastery of St. Tatavus.

An agent of the Armenian aid committee, after a horseback trip from Alashkirt to Dayazet, has reported that region is fully occupied by Russians and that 6,000 out of 25,000 refugees have returned to their homes.

(Minimum temperatures are for 12-hour period ending 8 A. M. this date.
 NOTE—The average highest temperature for 24 hours ending 8 A. M., 75th meridian time, except where noted.)
 NOTE—The average highest and lowest temperatures are given up at each center from the actual number of days observed, and the average precipitation from the number of days observed. The "Ave." column shows the "state of weather" is that prevailing at the time of observation.

REMARKS.
Rate has been general in the western and central districts, and heavy in portions of Louisiana, Arkansas, Tennessee, Mississippi, Alabama, Oklahoma, Georgia, Texas and Florida. Rates are slightly higher throughout the belt.
